On Monday 2 October our independent consultant John Rowan and Partners will be checking a sample of the newly installed flat entrance doors.

They will be door knocking a random selection of flats asking to check the front door inside and outside to ensure they have been installed correctly. This will take approximately 5 to 10 minutes per door.

The surveyors will be carrying their ID from John Rowan and Partners.

Please provide access if you are in as it is really important these independent quality checks are completed. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
